From the Incumbent

This Sunday, we will celebrate our patronal feast and reflect on our parish namesake, St. Timothy (feast day: January 26). My understanding of why our parish was named after him is that he was a protégé of St. Paul, and our parish was a church plant supported in part by St. Paul's on Bloor, where our first rector, Henry Marsh, had served as a curate. After 32 years (!) of ministry at St. Tim's, the Rev. Marsh became the Bishop of Yukon, where he served for five years, and the rest, as we say, is history.

If you would like to review the story of St Timothy (the saint, not the parish), I have put together some information here:

And some facts from our parish history can be found here:

Breakaway is next weekend (January 30–February 1). If you are not going up to Fair Havens, please remember that after church there will be a special talk and piano recital by Mike Janzen, a JUNO-nominated jazz musician and worship leader at Little Trinity Anglican Church. Lunch will be served alongside the talk.

As a follow-up to Breakaway, our upcoming Lenten study series will echo the theme of the Image of God. If you do not have the chance to join us for the retreat, this series will offer an opportunity to engage with similar content; and if you do attend Breakaway, it will be a meaningful way to build on that experience. We will meet on five Mondays before Holy Week, at lunchtime. Each session will include a short time for lunch (provided) and socializing.

Looking much further ahead, consider going camping with us at Killbear Provincial Park (Harold Point Campground) from June 17–21. Believe it or not, summer will be here in only five months, so you can book now, as registration for that weekend is already open and sites fill very quickly.

Lastly, a quick reminder that we are still looking to fill a few volunteer roles, including second adults in the room during the teens' and school-age programs (no pressure to lead or prepare—just to be present), ESL leaders, coffee-hour helpers, and photographers to help complete the parish directory. Thank you for your ongoing contributions to the life of this parish!

Blessings,

Irina+
